Program Changes

Enhance reserves the right to alter the program content, schedule, speakers, date, or venue as necessary due to circumstances beyond our control, at any time before the event.

Conference Speakers

External speakers are responsible for their session content. Enhance supports the freedom of speakers to express their views, which do not necessarily reflect those of Enhance or its staff. We strive to ensure the accuracy and validity of information presented by external speakers.

These materials are exclusively for attendees of Enhance events and may not be reproduced, shared, or distributed without Enhance's permission. In an effort to be environmentally friendly, physical copies of the attendee handbook and case competition guide will not be provided. Attendees are encouraged to download digital copies from our website.

Academic Integrity

Enhance upholds high standards of academic integrity. Attendees found sharing case details prematurely or engaging in any form of academic dishonesty will be disqualified from the competition.
